GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, JUNE 29, 1933

What Other Editors Have To Say

A VICTORY FOR SAFETY

One credit mark for the present legislature is the McColl-Green bill which fixes financial responsibility of motorists. The act is the first of its kind in Michigan and, although belated, is nevertheless welcome.

This act does not compel the motorist to carry insurance. Nor does it compel insurance companies to give coverage to individuals they do not consider worthy. But the act does bar from the highways those individuals who cannot show after an accident or after conviction on a serious motor vehicle charge the ability to meet damage judgments. The driver who violates no laws and who avoids accidents does not need to carry insurance. But the driver who is convicted and who cannot meet the judgments against him is barred from the highways until he has satisfied all obligations. In other words he cannot operate a motor car again until he shows definite proof of financial responsibility. This act will encourage careful driving and gradually rule off of the road those reckless, irresponsible motorists who more often than not are unable to pay the damage they do.

Accidents on the highways should be noticeably reduced when the McColl-Green bill takes effect.—Hastings Banner.

OLD AGE PENSIONS

Old age pensions are here. The new law is the forerunner of other pension acts which will be more liberal and more inclusive. We have saddled ourselves with a new burden that will never become less and will increase down through the years. We have finally admitted that there is logic in the statement, "The world owes me a living."

The new law provides for payments of not more than $30 per month to indigent citizens who have reached the age of 70 years and have resided for 10 years in Michigan.

We prophecy that within 10 years the pension will be doubled, the age limit will be down to 62 and the length of residence will be five years.

With the enactment of the new law there is no longer a need for hundreds of copy-book maxims. All those old stand-bys regarding thrift, independence, self-reliance and other virtues are out of date. The world now owes us all a living.—Ingham County News, Mason.

SALES TAX REQUIREMENTS NOW READY

COUNTY CLERK TO SUPPLY ALL RETAILERS

The following telegram, addressed to Grayling Board of Trade, which is no longer in existence, was turned over to Thomas Cassidy. It reads as follows:

Lansing, Mich.

June 26, 1933.

Secretary Board of Trade, Grayling, Mich.:

We hope to have sales tax regulations ready Wednesday. Can we ship you your county requirements and ask your cooperation in delivering to all retailers. License applications or fees not acceptable now, must accompany first return. Will you have your local papers give this publicity. Wire.

J. E. Mogan, Managing Director State Board of Tax Administration.

8:10 A. M., June 27.

Accordingly arrangements were made with County Clerk Axel Peterson to accept the necessary requirements who, in turn, will see that all retailers are provided for. No doubt by the time this newspaper goes to press Mr. Peterson will be in possession with all necessary information.

Many people feel that the sales tax is most equitable and garners in tax money from a class of people who otherwise pay not a cent for taxes. And there are others who feel that a tax on household necessities is unjust. However the sales tax is here to stay and all must pay whether we like it or not. And retailers must do their part in seeing that the tax is collected and remitted for. No doubt tax stamps must be applied, and will come in a variety of denominations.

Celebrate 4th at Beaver Creek

Take a basket lunch and load your family into the family automobile and spend the day of the Fourth at LaMotte's Field, in Beaver Creek. A lovely grove furnishes place to rest and you can enjoy your picnic dinner there. Beer furnished if desired. The place is an ideal spot for a picnic, located on U.S. 27, 7 miles south of Grayling.

During the afternoon there will be a soft ball tournament and other sports. Boys' teams have entered the soft ball tournament as follows: Roscommon 2 teams, C.C.C. 4 teams, Grayling South Side, Beaver Creek. Be there to root for your favorite team.

For the evening there will be dancing at the Beaver Creek town hall with good music. Everybody welcome.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS

The Knights of Columbus wish to thank the people of Grayling for their kindness in donating magazines, jig-saw puzzles, and card trick puzzles, and also base ball equipment, which was delivered to two C.C.C. camps at Camp Grayling and Kyle Lake. Some of the supplies will be delivered to the Red Oak camp. 2,000 sheets of stationery and 2,000 envelopes were donated by the Knights of Columbus.

WILL OBSERVE 40TH ANNIVERSARY

Members of Danish-Lutheran church are making extensive plans for the celebration of the 40th anniversary of the church next Sunday.

Many outsiders, members of the congregation and two of its former pastors Rev. Kjolhede and Rev. Kildegaard have sent word that they will be present. The observance of the day will begin with services in the morning at which there will be communion, and in the evening supper will be served to all at 5:30 o'clock at Danebod hall. A program is being arranged to be given after the supper.

When the Danish people do anything it is done to perfection and no doubt the day will be a very successful one.

CIVIC LEAGUE DANCE A SUCCESS

The Civic Improvement League sponsored a dance at the high school gym last Friday night.

There was splendid response and the gym floor was filled to capacity for every number. The C.C.C.s from the camp at Lake Margrethe were there and everyone had the time of his life.

Clark's and Misner's orchestras furnished the music and they received loud applause from the merry-makers.

A committee from the League served lunch.

Ted Wheeler put the dance across for the benefit of the community work that the league is carrying on and he deserves the credit for its success.

The music was donated by the orchestras, which showed their fine spirit of cooperation.

The league wishes to thank everyone who gave their time or material to help this worthy benefit.

Some $27 was turned into the organization's treasury which will be used for improvement purposes.

DEPT. OF STATE

STATE NEWS BULLETIN

The total tax on gasoline you buy for your car after July 1, will be about 4 1/2 cents a gallon. The office of the secretary of state will collect the three-cent state specific gas tax; the federal government will collect 1 1/2 cents (the last half cent being effective June 16), and the state board of tax administrators will collect its 3 percent sales tax, which will equal about 1/4 of a cent a gallon. In many states of the union, the total state and national tax on gasoline will exceed the price of the fluid itself.

While the state may spend money in huge sums, it collects it almost penny by penny. The three percent sales tax, effective July 1, is a sterling example. If retail business of the state is only half as large as it was in 1929, the state government will gather in, at the rate of three cents on each dollar you and everyone else passes over retail counters, a total of some $32,000,000 a year.

On July 1, next Saturday, Frank D. Fitzgerald, secretary of state, will be the only republican elective department head left in the capitol. On that date, two important departments will change commands. Murray D. Van Waggoner, will take over the huge state highway department, and Dr. Paul F. Voelker will become superintendent of public instruction. They will succeed Grover C. Dillman and Webster H. Pearce, respectively. Mr. Fitzgerald is the only republican elective official to survive after two elections, those of Nov. 8 and April 8.

When Gov. William A. Comstock came, back to his office Tuesday, after a visit on private business in New York City, he faced a tidal wave of bills passed by the legislature in the final days of the session. The measures were printed in their final or "enrolled" form during his absence. Among the most important bills awaiting his signature are the sales tax bill, the horse racing bill, and so far as public interest is concerned, the small loan bill.

Before he left, Governor Comstock vetoed the bill which would have given osteopaths all rights and privileges now enjoyed by medical doctors. Former Gov. Fred W. Green also vetoed such a bill two years ago.

Payment by every resident of the state, an annual tax of $2, for the financing of the estimated $6,000,000 old age pension payments, will reach one class of people here before not reached by any direct taxes. Even those not citizens, and not thus even entitled to vote in this state or nation, will be assessed.

The term "poll" tax, often misunderstood, refers not to a voting "poll" but to the somewhat literary "poll", meaning a head. Thus the poll tax is a head tax. This bill may or may not be approved by the Governor.

ASK FARMERS TO PLANT LESS WHEAT

The step taken by the administrators of the Farm Relief Act in adjusting the acreage of basic crops to the normal demand from consumers will directly affect Michigan farmers who will be asked to reduce by 20 per cent the 765,800 acres of wheat grown annually in this state, and all consumers of wheat products will be indirectly affected, according to announcements made from Washington, D. C., by Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture.

Michigan is not usually considered to have vital interest in the wheat crop but the production here totals over 15 million bushels annually. The acreage planted to wheat in the State is equal to the total acreage planted to rye, barley, buckwheat, sugar beets, and potatoes. As the Michigan wheat acreage is mostly confined to the southern portion of the lower peninsula, it is apparent that the proposed curtailment of wheat acreage will materially affect Michigan farm practices.

The plan proposed by Secretary Wallace to bring the wheat acreage within the limits called for by consumers is to reduce the acreage of the 1934 and 1935 wheat crops not to exceed 20 per cent. This would mean a reduction of 147,160 acres in Michigan if all wheat growers cooperated with the federal government.

No Michigan farmer is required to reduce his wheat acreage. All farmers will be asked to cooperate and those who believe that the payments to be made by the government for decreases in acreage will recompense them for the reduction in bushels marketed will sign contracts to cut their wheat plantings by the amount to be determined by the administrators of the Act.

Farmers who believe that they can make more money by planting their usual acreage of wheat for sale on the open market will not sign contracts and will receive no payments from the government.

Payments to be made to farmers will be obtained by placing a processing tax upon the 1933 crop of wheat as it goes through the mills to be made into flour. The amount of tax to be levied is tentatively placed at 30 cents per bushel but this can be changed by Secretary Wallace at any time that market conditions warrant.

Present intentions are to advance two-thirds of the bonus payment to farmers about Sept. 15, 1933, and to pay the balance upon evidence of fulfillment of the crop reduction contract.

County committees of farmers will be organized with the aid of the county agricultural agent. The purpose of the committee is to find the average acreages of wheat grown by farmers in the county, to find how many farmers are willing to reduce the number of acres grown, to ask farmers who are willing to reduce acreage to sign crop reduction contracts, and to decide whether or not the cooperators have fulfilled their contract.

Expenses incurred by the committee will be deducted from payments made to that county. Attempts to defeat the purpose of the Act by farmers who make optimistic reports of previous wheat acreages are to be checked by surveys made by local men who know the amounts of wheat previously sown by their neighbors. Expenditure of the bonus payments for added amounts of fertilizer to be applied on the reduced acreage will be dealt with by the county committees. Other crops can not be sown on land taken from wheat production.

"Our first duty is to the farmer," is the statement of George N. Peek, who is in charge of all plans of crop reductions. Mr. Peek continues, "We propose to be watchful of the interests of others. The plan is financed by a processing tax but this should not mean necessarily that the entire tax is to be passed on to the consumer."

"For example, in 1909-1913, hard winter wheat sold for 95 cents a bushel at Kansas City, flour sold for $4.38 a barrel, and bread retailed for 6 cents per pound. In 1932, wheat sold for 46.9 cents per bushel in Kansas City, flour sold for $3.85 a barrel, but bread retailed for 6.7 cents per pound."

"Wheat prices dropped more than 50 per cent but bread prices rose 10 per cent. Such a spread suggests that at least part of the processing tax should be absorbed (Continued on back page)

FACTS ABOUT FISHING LICENSES

There has been much confusion and misunderstanding relative to what law shall govern in the issuing of resident and non-resident fishing licenses this year. However, an opinion has just been rendered by the Attorney General of the State of Michigan: That the provisions of Act Number 76, P. A. 1933, shall be and are in immediate effect, citing Michigan 84, Page 413, People vs. Burch, as the authority for this ruling.

This Act provides that all resident persons over 18 years of age are required to have a fishing license for taking fish in any manner in the inland waters of the state, the fee for which is fifty cents, except the wife of a resident license, will be issued an identification slip allowing her to fish on the husband's license without additional charge.

Residents holding a 1933 trout fishing license, shall be entitled to take all legal kinds of fish for the balance of the year. The wife of such person should carry a memorandum showing her husband's license number, date and place of issuance.

Persons regularly domiciled on any farm or other lands all of which are enclosed, who actually reside thereon throughout the year, may fish in the waters wholly within the limits of said farm or land at any time when permitted by law without license.

Any person who has not been a resident of his state for six consecutive months immediately prior to his application for a fishing license, shall be considered a non-resident.

The fee for a general non-resident fishing license is two dollars. Provided, however, a license may be issued to the wife of any non-resident exhibiting an unexpired non-resident license issued to her husband and the payment of fifty cents; And Provided, that a limited license entitling the holder to fish for ten days shall be issued upon payment of one dollar; the wife likewise to receive a ten day license for fifty cents.

The inland waters are construed to be all of the waters over which the state has jurisdiction except Saginaw River, Lakes Michigan, Superior, Huron and Erie and the bays and the connecting waters, that is, St. Mary's River, St. Clair River, Lake St. Clair and the Detroit River.

It is expected that all persons will secure proper licenses to fish as herein provided, as soon as possible.

ALL ADULTS MUST PAY $2 TAX

Michigan's citizens are to be asked to increase their contributions to State funds within the next few months.

Michigan's 2,000,000 adult citizens are confronted with another $4,000,000 annual tax burden as both Houses of the Legislature gave final approval to the old-age pension bill, with a $2 head tax provision. The bill was sent to the Governor.

Every citizen of Michigan over 21 years of age is required to register with the County Clerk before October 1 of this year and be prepared to pay his head tax between December 1 and March 1, on penalty of a $100 fine or 90 days imprisonment.

The funds thus set up are to be administered by the State Welfare Director as old-age pensions, available in 1934 to dependents over 70 years of age who have been citizens 15 years and residents of the state continuously for 10 years, except that provision made for brief absences.

$30 a Month Provided The pension fund will be sufficient, with whatever other income the individual may have to reach the total of $30 a month. Property worth $3,500 and income of $150 a year will be disregarded in administering the fund, except that, on the death of the beneficiary, the total payments he has received, plus 3 1/2 per cent, will be deducted from his estate. In case the beneficiary's other income is inadequate, funeral expenses up to $200 are provided for.

Also a 3 per cent retail sales tax, estimated to produce $31,700,000 a year has been approved by the state legislature. It is designed to wipe out all State levies except mill taxes for the Universities of Michigan and Michigan State College. The sales tax measure levies largely on the necessities of life, which the poor have difficulties obtaining under any circumstances.

and Beer

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has put out tentative rules and regulations for the sale of beer or wine under the new Michigan law. Following are those which apply where beer is sold for consumption on the premises.

No licensee shall permit drunkards, gamblers, or idlers to frequent and congregate upon the licensed premises or allow gambling or games of chance for gain, profane or indecent language or other unseemingly conduct thereon.

Vendors who habitually sell food and who obtain a license for the sale of beer and or wine for consumption on the premises shall charge no less for such food than the prevailing prices in their various communities for food of a like nature by persons not licensed under this act.

No vendor, his or its agents, servants or employees shall serve or permit to be served any beer
and or wine over a bar or counter, directly to the consumer. It shall be unlawful for any vendor, his agents, servants or employees to serve beer and or wine for consumption on the premises to any person unless said person is seated at a table, provided, however, that beer and or wine may be served by any hotel licensed under the provisions of this act in the room of a bonafide guest thereof.

No vendor, his or its employees,
servants or agents shall give away
any beer and or wine of any kind or description at any time on his licensed premises, except the manufacturers of beer and or wine for consumption on the premises.

No vendor, his or its employees,
servants or agents shall give away
food of any description with the sale of any beer and or wine.

All licenses shall be framed under glass and prominently displayed in full view on said licensed premises.

The sale of all beer and or wine for consumption either on the premises or off shall be limited to the boundaries indicated and described in the application by which said license was received, and in the event of a removal of the said licensee from the premises to another location, the Commission shall first be notified and its consent given in writing.

No vendor by himself or his or its agents, servants or employees, shall give, sell or offer for sale
beer and or wine, to any person under the age of 18 years.

No person shall consume any beer and or wine on the highway
at any time.

No vendor by himself, his servants, agents or employees shall sell or permit the sale of any beer and or wine for consumption on the premises between the hours of 2 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock A. M.
Eastern Standard Time.

It shall be the duty of vendors of beer and or wine to post a printed price list in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises and to furnish any purchaser with such printed price list if requested.

The Log Office Says

Interesting bits of news and comment about Northwestern Michigan gathered by the E. M. T. A.

Summer has come and with the bass season opening last Saturday the tourist and resort season is officially on. Thousands of fishermen from southern Michigan and from out-of-state were established in camps, resorts, hotels and state parks awaiting the signal at midnight last Saturday on location, as they say on the movie lots.

Fishermen should have great success this season for many waters have been amply supplied with full grown fish from the Great Lakes, a notable instance being carried on during the heat of last week up in Montmorency county.

The Avalon, Atlanta, Lewiston
and Rust-Loud chapters of the Montmorency County Sportsmen's League, under the direction of Conservation Officer C. A. Eagle, took 6,381 pike from the upper south branch of the Thunder Bay river and transported them to several inland lakes.

Fish ranging from two pounds to seven pounds were taken in nets, placed in tanks on eight trucks and carried to the lakes without the loss of a single fish.

And, while the story savors of the "fish variety," or the tale Frank Bacon told about driving a swarm of bees from New York to San Francisco without the loss of a single bee, but there are so many witnesses that it hardly behooves anyone to doubt the story. At any rate there are a number of lakes which are known to have plenty of "big ones."

The lakes receiving the fish and the numbers distributed to each are as follows: Avalon, 1,756;
Long, 1,818; Anchor, 699; Ess, 784; Bedore, 513; Sucker, 348;
Cranberry, 427; Fifteen, 323.

Charles Ewalt of Mackinaw has completed a new cottage on Lake Margrethe, near the new Kalkaska road.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Murray of Detroit arrived Saturday to spend some time at their Lodge
on the AuSable.

Mrs. Margaret Harvey, who is making her home in Detroit at present, arrived home Monday night to remain until tomorrow.

Mrs. Alvin Burch, of Traverse City spent the week end visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr.
and Mrs. A. J. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Olson were the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Sarah Stillwell, over the week end in Detroit.

G. A. Kraus of Chicago arrived Saturday to visit his family at their summer home on Lake Margrethe.

Mrs. Wm. Powell left Monday for Detroit to spend some time visiting her son, Gerald Powell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McNeven, daughter Shirley and son Clinton of Bay City spent the week end here visiting relatives.

The members of the Bay City First M. E. Church Choir were guests at the Billings cottage on Lake Margrethe over Sunday.

Mrs. Lloyd Masters and daughter Sally of Detroit are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Darveau this week.

George Weiss left for Harbor Springs Sunday, where he has accepted a position as manager of an A. & P. meat market. George was employed at the local A. & P.
market for some time and was always found to be very courteous and obliging, and no doubt he will meet with success in Harbor Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bates motored to Grand Rapids in their new Chevrolet for the week end to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hermann and daughter Barbara.
They were accompanied home Monday by Mrs. Hermann and Barbara who will spend several weeks here.

On Friday, the 23rd, the Golf Course Caddies took the South Siders to town with the score 8-16 in a soft ball game. The South Siders were lacking one of their best players (Ben Pankow), and Floyd Lovely tried hard to take Ben's place. Chris King was umpire and Bill Wilson was pitching for the South Siders. After this game we (the Caddies) decided we needed a little infel practice so we played five more innings, letting them beat so they wouldn't feel so bad. The Caddies would like to take on other teams who would furnish more competition.

Johnson's Rustic Tavern at Houghton Lake was host to a very important group of boosters last week when the members of chapters 22 and 29 of the Hotel Græters, an association which includes most of the men and women engaged in the management of hotels throughout Michigan.

Included in the group were H.
A. Klein, Book Cadillac; M. V.
Beam, Hotel Statler, and James E.
O'Brien, McGraw Hotel, Detroit;
Noel K. Black, Paultland Hotel,
Raymond Baker, Morton Hotel,
Raymond Held, Hotel Herkimer, Grand Rapids and A. A. Frost of the Cedar Point Lodge and the Park Place, Traverse City.

The enthusiasm expressed by this group argues well for the kind of message they will convey to the traveling public with whom they are in constant touch throughout the year. East Michigan will, no doubt, profit greatly.

The Fourth of July will be duly celebrated in an unusually large number of communities and at the Civilian Conservation Corps camps
this year.

Mackinaw City is staging an unusual celebration for the opening of the stockade at Fort Michilimackinac, a historical reproduction of the fort built by the British and captured by the Indian chief Pontiac 170 years ago.

Governor William A. Comstock
and Congressman Prentiss M.
Brown will be the guests of honor and the principal speakers. Chippewa Indians will stage a lacrosse game as did the Indians the day they lured the British from their stockade prior to the massacre which stands as one of history's slaughters.

BIG RECORD FOR MAY SHOWS BETTER TIMES

Windstorm Co. Adds $10,292,530
New Insurance in May

As everyone knows, the business of the Windstorm Insurance Company of this city brings it into close touch with the people of every part of Michigan. Consequently whatever new business it gathers in, within a given period, is a fair index of economic conditions in this state. The big volume of new insurance taken by the Windstorm Company agents in the month of May this year furnishes the most ample proof that times are decidedly better in Michigan. Not in any month in over two years has this company booked such a large volume of new risks as in May, 1933, when the total new insurance was $10,292, 530. The people of this state would have been just as willing in May, 1932 or May 1931 to have given the Windstorm Company as large a volume of new business as they did in May this year; but they didn't have the money then and weren't able to get it, so the business was not forthcoming.

A company that can add over $10,000,000 of new insurance in a single month is certainly to be congratulated. It is needless to add that such a showing would not be possible except for the splendid reputation and record of this company, and the fine spirit and fair dealing it has always shown.

When people can get such satisfactory insurance as the Wind-storm Company furnishes at the very low price patrons have to pay for it, they realize that it is a wise investment and nothing but inability to pay could or would keep them from getting such insurance. The company not only writes a liberal policy but makes fair adjustments and prompt payments of losses. The company maintains itself in such a sound financial condition that it can always pay its losses promptly. That is why it was able to make such a showing for May, 1933. We congratulate the company and its agents, and congratulate the people who have purchased over $10,000,000 worth of first-class insurance in a first-class company.

Death Lurks in Highway Dust Clouds

DUSTY highways are dangerous as these two pictures testify. The upper photo shows a truck with grader operating on a gravel road which never has been treated with calcium chloride. Note the clouds of dust in the wake. Its operator said the truck had been run into several times because drivers of automobiles could not see it through the dust screen.
Below, a similar road treated with calcium chloride. The truck shown is operating at the same speed as in the upper picture, yet there is not a trace of dust visible.

The tug Temple Every brought from Drummond's Island 3,000,000 feet of logs, owned by the Salling Hanson Co., and which will be manufactured at the Embury-Martin Lumber Co.'s mill at Cheboygan.

Our northern suburb, "Lovells" 18 miles on the Lewiston branch sent in a call for help Tuesday, and a special took up sixty men in twenty-five minutes. The reason for the call was the burning of the T. E. Douglas & Co. mill and a large lot of shingles, which was entirely consumed. The lumber yard and surrounding buildings were saved. The mill on the same site was burned about two years ago, and the new mill immediately built, more modern and better in every way. It is not probable that they will rebuild it.

COMPLETE TROUT PLANTING

Stocking of its feeding stations with millions of rainbow, brown and brook trout fry has been completed for the season, the Fish Division of the Conservation Department has announced. The fish were transferred by truck from the various hatcheries engaged in the propagation of trout.

All of the trout will be held in the stations until after the close of the trout fishing season, Labor Day, when they will be planted.

At that time they will run in size from four to eight inches in length, the Division said.

In the meantime hatchery employees and conservation officers are inspecting the trout streams for the purpose of studying conditions that recommendations might be made to the Fish Division for an equitable distribution of the fish.

A financial chart has been prepared that shows that Michigan for six years has been running in the "red." It was soon after Governor Green assumed office that the state's finances, according to this chart, plunged below the red line, to remain there to this very day. Not once during all of these six years has the state been out of the "red." Each year it has sunk lower and lower until the present administration was faced with a deficit of something like $12,000,000. Even the sinking funds that were created during the Sleeper, Groesbeck administrations have evaporated.

PROGRESS

By LEONARD A. BARRETT

"A Century of Progress"—a most interesting title for the World's fair. A hundred years of progress in science and invention may mean much or little depending upon one's attitude toward social values. "A Century of Progress" in invention has developed the machine age in industry, which suggests a serious question—can the development of the machine be acclaimed indiscriminately with hearty applause? The ultimate worth of an invention is found not in the field of scientific discovery, but in its value to society. As one reviews the triumph of the machine age as it is being demonstrated at the fair, the question naturally arises, "Is society any better off at the end of this 'Century of Progress'?" To what extent is present unemployment due to the perfection of the machine? May it not be true that the very men who worked to complete the fair have now returned to the ranks of the unemployed, some of whom may have been forced to accept welfare donations?

Progress achieved at the cost of three years of the most severe depression known in history may be heralded as an advance in science but unless human relations are better, and life made more livable and happier, that progress is scarcely worthy of so costly a celebration. The other side of the picture, however, looks toward tomorrow and may be prophetic. What we see at the fair may be indicative of a greater and grander future, a preview of its architecture, industry and science. That the economic pressure is gradually being lifted no person can honestly doubt. It will, however, take a long time to atone for the sacrifice and suffering of the last three years. If, however, we get back to normalcy and the "Century of Progress" enables us to build upon that foundation a nobler future socially, all that we have witnessed at the fair can truly be prophetically interpreted of an age that is to be.

There is no progress save that which ministers to the spiritual, moral and physical development of the race.

News Review of Current Events the World Over

Americans in London Conference Reject Temporary Stabilization of Dollar and Offer Economic Program; Three More States Vote for Repeal.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

EXASPERATED by accusations that they were backing the operations of the world conference in London, the American delegates placed their cards on the table, informing the conference that the United States would not consider the temporary stabilization of the dollar during the life of the meeting, as was demanded by the gold bloc.

They also presented their economic program, moving the adoption of a resolution binding all nations to cease raising trade barriers against each other, to remove embargoes, quotas, and other arbitrary restrictions, and to scale down tariffs by reciprocal agreements.

The delegation then moved the adoption of another resolution committing the nations to co-operative action in expanding credit and in government expenditures on public works for the purpose of reviving industry.

Meanwhile Prof. Raymond Moley, assistant secretary of state, was on his way to London for a week's stay, having been sent hurriedly by President Roosevelt to act as a sort of liaison officer.

While the Americans were framing their statement the French were fuming and threatening to bring about adjournment of the conference, and Prime Minister MacDonald was visibly worried. But James M. Cox, chairman of the monetary committee, talked privately with George Bonnet, French minister of finance, and explained Mr. Roosevelt's position on the stabilization question in detail. He outlined the Roosevelt inflation program, told how cheapening the value of the dollar was bringing about a rise of commodity prices and painted a glowing picture of reviving prosperity at home. So the French consented not to disrupt the conference.

Secretary of State Hull, it was rumored, intended to return to the United States soon after the arrival of Moley. He refused to confirm or deny this report, and he also declined to express pessimism concerning the success of the conference. He had a long private talk with King George but of course could not reveal what was said.

Mr. Hull took the occasion to deny reports that the American delegation was badly split on the course to pursue in the conference. It had been reported that Senator Couzens of Michigan had read the riot act to the delegation, asserting that the Americans must decide whether to stand for a nationalistic program, represented by the powers conferred on President Roosevelt by congress, or by an internationalistic program, represented by the aims of the conference.

Mr. Hull said he could see no inconsistency. The domestic programs of recovery from depression in the United States and other nations, as he viewed it, were to be reinforced by an international program to be adopted at this conference.

SENATOR KEY PITTMAN of the American delegation submitted to the monetary committee of the conference his proposal for currency reform in five clauses. The committee promptly and pleasantly accepted the first two clauses, which urged that stabilization in the international monetary field be attained "as quickly as practicable" and that gold be re-established as the international medium of exchange values.

Mr. Pittman beamed and thanked the committee, but the gold standard after that got into action and decided that the other clauses of the memorandum, the most important ones—namely: reduction of currency coverage in gold and remonetization of silver—were too serious and intricate as to demand study. The gold bloc delegates urged that they be referred to committees and sub-committees for analysis and investigation, which was done.

James P. Warburg of the United States and Lord Hallam of Great Britain supported the Pittman resolution. Lord Hallam also introduced an amendment to the Pittman resolution, providing that each nation should be the judge of the time and the parity at which it will return to the gold standard.

Mr. Warburg also made it quite plain that the United States would return to gold only when and how she wished and would not submit to any international order on this point.

REDUCTION of the world wheat crops was discussed at length in the economic section, and experts attached to the various delegations made what was hopefully termed a substantial advance toward an agreement among the United States, Canada, Australia and Argentina to cut output by 15 per cent.

Before the committee Stanley Bruce of Australia said that commonwealth would not accept the French plan to reduce the production of primary commodities as a means of raising prices. He presented the thesis that it was up to the industrial countries of the world to stop trying to be agriculturally self-contained and buy food from agricultural countries in exchange for manufactured goods.

The world has not forgotten the disconcerting proposal of Litvinov of Russia in the armament conference, that the nations represented should agree to disarm immediately. Well, the Russian repeated in London, submitting a draft proposal calling for an economic non-aggression pact by which the nations would bind themselves to refrain from economic attack on each other by means of discriminatory tariffs, special duties or conditions of trade, railway tariffs, charges on shipping, and any kind of boycott by legal or administrative measures. Of course this was too forthright to meet with the approval of the other delegates.

THREE more states are now in the prohibition repeal column, the total number being fourteen—and not one yet for the dregs. The latest commonwealths to vote for ratification of the repeal amendment are Iowa, Connecticut and New Hampshire. Connecticut was one of the two states that never ratified the prohibition amendment and the result there was considered a foregone conclusion. The wets won about 6 to 1. Iowa and New Hampshire, however, had been placed in the doubtful list, so when they turned in substantial majorities for repeal, there was great rejoicing among the anti-prohibitionists.

California, West Virginia, Alabama and Arkansas are the next to vote on the issue, and the dregs hope to win in the latter two, figuring that thus the question will be put over until next year, when they think their chances will be better.

SUMNER WELLES, our astute ambassador to Cuba, seems to be progressing with his plans for bringing about peace on that troubled island. His scheme for mediation has been accepted by the professors and students in Havana, foes of President Machado, and they have told their delegates in the United States to get in line or quit the opposition organization.

With the assured support of the A. B. C. Secret society, the professors, the Nationalist union, the faction headed by Miguel Mariano Gomez and, probably, the partisans of former President Mario G. Menocal, observers believed the ambassador had behind him sufficient opposition strength to justify the early opening of deliberations.

It is predicted that the main points of the conciliation program will be:

Immediate restoration of political normalcy throughout the island, liberation of political prisoners, restoration of the suspended guarantees, press freedom and recall of military supervisors.

Constitutional reforms restoring the office of Vice President, eliminated in 1928, providing for his selection immediately after the reforms go into effect; curtailment of the terms of public officials proposed in 1928 and forbidding any President to succeed himself.

Reform of the electoral code. In this Dr. Howard Lee McBain of Columbia university has been invited to aid.

DEDICATION of the Illinois waterway and the lakes to the gulf water route was the occasion of spectacular ceremonies in Chicago near the mouth of the river. Secretary of War George H. Dern flew there by airplane to make an address, and he was accompanied by Speaker Henry T. Rainey and Maj. Gen. Lytle Brown, chief of the army engineers. Scores of other prominent persons took part in the deluge. One of the features of the day was the arrival of a tow of Mississippi river barges carrying the first commercial cargo over the lakes to gulf route from New Orleans to Chicago. It was escorted by the official party of the port at New Orleans and other guests.

In one ceremony, Mayor Kelly of Chicago joined Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley of New Orleans in blending water brought from the Gulf of Mexico with that of Lake Michigan. Among other speakers were Governor Horner of Illinois, Maj. Gen. Thomas Q. Ashburn, president of the federal barge lines and the governors of several states along the inland waterway route. Delegations were present from St. Louis, Milwaukee, Peoria and other cities.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT in his leisurely cruise up the New England coast to Campobello Island in the bay of Fundy showed that he is a first class sailor. He acted as skipper of the schooner Amberjack II, and, while he took no unnecessary chances with the weather, he handled the little vessel with skill and nerve. A coast guard cutter and one destroyer accompanied the Amberjack, and of course the press boats went along. After the start Mr. Roosevelt tried to avoid the photographers.

DISPATCHES from Riga, the only source of fairly trustworthy news about Soviet Russia, says that Moscow's trade monopoly is anxiously searching for a nation that will grant the millions of dollars credit necessary to buy grain for the starving population of Russia. The negotiations opened by Smith Wildman Brookhart, now of the American agricultural administration, are being watched eagerly, and it is asserted that his cotton selling scheme is a camouflage for a secret deal with Boris Skvirski, chief of the Amtorg in New York, concerning large credits for purchases of American grain. Skvirski, it is said, has received instructions to do everything possible to purchase grain with a minimum of publicity since Russia has decided to keep the tragic news of the present famine hidden from the world.

According to Latvian and Estonian diplomats stationed at Moscow, Russia has cotton enough to export but not enough to operate her own mills and while Moscow is willing to take anything the United States will sell her on credit, the nation's chief need is grain.

CHANCELLOR HITLER of Germany delivered a decisive blow to the nationalist followers of Dr. Alfred Eugenberger, minister of agriculture and economics, when he dissolved their fighting units throughout the reich. The police, assisted by Nazi storm troops, raided the headquarters of the nationalist fighters in all the cities and made many arrests. It was then officially announced that these units would hereafter be forbidden. The Steel Helmet war veterans' organization in the Duesseldorf district also was suppressed.

Though Chancellor Dollfuss of Austria professed to want nothing but peace with the German Nazis, he has issued a decree outlawing their party and all affiliated organizations in Austria.

Hitler's new "trustees of labor" are assuming dictatorial control of the factories of Germany and it is announced they are "above all parties and interests and are responsible only to the state and its highest leader, Hitler."

GEN. HUGH S. JOHNSON, administrator for the industrial recovery administration, held a press conference in Washington and told in vigorous language what he and his assistants hope to accomplish. In part he said:

"The emergency phase of this job is to get people back to work. That's what's worrying everybody, that's what's the trouble with everything. And we've got to shorten the week and pay a living wage for the shorter week."

"How it's going to work out, where it's going, I don't want to say. There's been too much promising all along through this depression."

"The industries want to do the job as much as we do. I don't detect any slacking. I think it's going to work and put several million men back to work this summer. Maybe a snag somewhere along the line, we may stub our toes, but we're going to make a stab at it."

The cotton industry was the first to move toward placing itself under government control. Its proposed code, framed by Johnson, calls for a maximum work week of 40 hours and a minimum wage scale of $10 a week in the South and $11 in the North. This represents a 20 per cent wage advance and a reduction of 20 per cent in working hours.

O. L. BODENHAMER, former national commander of the American Legion, in a cigarette in an all field near Holmdel, N. J., an explosion of gas caused, and within a few hours Mr. Bodenhamer was dead of burns. He was one of the most prominent citizens of Arkansas.

THE navy formally accepted the I. H. McGon and the great ship was commissioned at Alton and left for Lakehurst, N. J. It will go to the naval air station at Sunnyvale, Calif., probably in August.

FEED GRASSHOPPER POISON BRAN BAIT

Farmers in the northern parts of Michigan are warned by the entomology department at Michigan State College that unless grasshoppers are killed by poison bait before they become larger in size serious crop losses will occur in some districts.

The kind of bait, earliness of application, method of distributing the bait, and number of farmers in a community who cooperate in destroying these insects are the important points in a campaign to control the losses from grasshoppers.

The best bait is one which contains homemade arsenite of soda as the killing agent. This poison is made by adding 32 pounds of ordinary caustic soda, lye, to eight and one-half gallons of water, then, as soon as the lye has dissolved, add 100 pounds of white arsenic, a little at a time as fast as it dissolves. A quart of this poison, five pounds salt, two gallons cheap molasses, 10 gallons of water, and three ounces of banana oil are used to moisten 100 pounds of bran.

The bait should be scattered during the warmest hours of the day. It is broadcast, and care should be used to insure that no lumps of the bait are thrown out. Ten pounds of bait will treat one acre of ground.

Preparing the poison bait should be a community affair. Large quantities can be mixed as easily as small, the ingredients can be bought more cheaply in wholesale lots, and all the farmers who cooperate in the preparation of the poison will be applying the bait on their farms at the same time.

Most of the hoppers hatch from eggs laid in sod lands, and, in Michigan, this means cutover tracts adjoining cultivated fields. The poison bait should be applied before the grasshoppers invade the cultivated crops so most of it is scattered in the cutover lands. Special attention should be paid to the ground bordering cultivated fields, and bait should be placed in the cultivated crop to destroy the hoppers which have entered the fields.

Best results in destroying the pests are obtained if a campaign is organized to treat large tracts of land at a time. County agricultural agents gladly do the necessary preliminary work of getting the farmers to work together, and the agents can give estimates of the cost of the control measures. County funds are provided in some Michigan counties to buy bait. The Upper Peninsula is already working on a well organized campaign to kill hoppers.

POTPOURRI

Water Power

It is estimated that the water power of the United States totals approximately 54,000,000 horse power. Not more than 20 percent of this has been developed, but if it could all be put to work there would be more than enough to operate every industrial plant and railroad in the country. Canada has about 18,000,000, and Europe 41,000,000 horse power, only part of which is utilized.

Homemakers' Corner

Michigan State College
By Home Economics Specialists

There are many uses for the sugar, flour, salt, potato, and feed sacks, according to home economics extension clothing and home furnishing specialists, Michigan State College.

The sackings of loosely woven soft muslin make good slippers and diapers for the baby, rompers for the toddler, dresses for the small girl, or trousers for sunsuits. The upper part of the sunsuit may be made from a piece of discarded curtain material. The muslin tints easily, and many attractive colors are possible.

The heavier salt sacks, usually made of light-weight crash, make comfortable and attractive play-suits or overalls, or by combining three of the large ones, a serviceable dress for the housewife can be made.

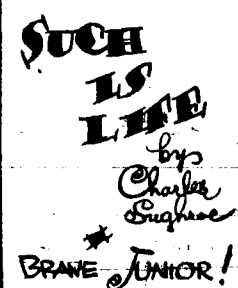

Dyed salt sacks will make attractive slip covers, or may be used as breakfast cloths by fringing the edges. Potato and feed sacks may be used or braided, hooked, or crocheted rugs.

Printing may be removed by various means. If the letters are stamped with ink or paint, they can be removed by washing. If the first laundering does not take out all the printing, boiling with soap, or rubbing soap on the wet bag, rolling it up, and letting it stand for several hours, before washing, will prove effective.

If the printing is resistant to the above processes, soaking in kerosene overnight and washing the material in the morning, or bleaching with Javelle water, are suggested. The latter method is not recommended unless absolutely necessary, as the creamy color of the bag is more satisfactory than bleached white.

HAVE TO SAY

to excise taxes with which to operate the state government operate up a menace that few realize at the present time. This policy will make Lansing a grab bag center and the result will be extravagances not dreamed of under the direct property tax.

The people of Michigan didn't vote for the transfer of the tax burden to other shoulders; they voted for lower taxes. They were told and told truly, that the expenses of the state government had grown out of proportion to the benefits being received from it.

The present administration hasn't interpreted the vote in that way. It has adopted a policy of transferring the tax burden to the trader instead of the property owner and of continuing the expenses of government in the same slipshod manner with the idea of rewarding political followers rather than relieving the tax burden.

It's time that the people of the state awoke to this menace. It's time that some leader came out forcefully against this threatened extravagance. New offices, new commissions, new salaries are being added to the list with a lavish hand.

We have republicans wringing their hands and moaning that the party is in disrepute and will not come back, at least for a long time, when right on their doorstep is dropped the opportunity that is going to provide the war cry which someone is going to raise sooner or later—no increase in state expenses.

Our democratic friends proposed to place this immense new revenue in the general fund where it will be available as a sort of slush fund to dole out to the faithful just as it has been doing out jobs. If a county or a section wants to get any of it that county or section must "be good"; must cater to the powers that be. The disrupting influences of the years that brought odium to the republican party are to be continued and intensified and the plunder of political position glorified. This is a menace such as the state has never faced before and it's time that the moral element of the state should gird on their armor and do battle in the cause of lower taxes for everyone.—Crystall Falls Diamond Drill.

ROOSEVELT STANDS FIRM

We are glad to see that President Roosevelt has the courage to stand firm in face of a congress that has become somewhat panic stricken over the pressure being exerted by the powerful veterans' lobby to throw the doors of the U. S. treasury wide open once again. Possibly the economy bill as originally passed did close the doors of government assistance to many who deserved it. However the compromise agreed upon by the president did away with this evil and should insure every worthy veteran getting the proper care. People of the United States had almost despaired of ever getting pension payments and the cost of veterans' administration down to a sane level. President Roosevelt did it and the country was with him—the country is still with him, we believe, in his controversy with a politically-minded senate.—Hastings Banner.

BACK FROM THE VACATION
TO REST UP

How often do you hear the expression that a certain person is now back from his vacation and will rest up a bit? It is too true that the vacation is often too vigorous. A person overdoes it and the reaction is a bad streak of health.

We were interested this week in what Dr. Ernest H. Lines had to say about vacations. Quoth he: "In planning your vacation, remember that in many respects a change is as good as a rest. Don't spend your holidays like the sailor who went boating, or the mail-carrier who took a long walk. If possible, do just the opposite from your usual round of activities.

"For example, if your occupation is a sedentary one demanding great expenditure of mental energy, plan a vacation of mental physical activity free from all strain. Golf, tennis, swimming, baseball, hiking, and similar physical pursuits in moderation are suggested. Don't begin too vigorously. Exercise should leave a feeling of pleasant fatigue, rather than exhaustion, which is dangerous to health.

"Or, if you do physical work the year round, then seek a holiday of relaxation, and perhaps study and read a bit to exercise the mental processes. Some men enjoy the quiet solitude that comes from fishing. Travel for those who can afford it provides an excellent means of obtaining cultural and educational advantages.

"Get away from home if you can. If you can't, remember that many people can get more good from spending their vacations at home leading than those who tire themselves out going away.

"Whatever your vacation program may be, don't make it too fatiguing or strenuous. You should plan to build up a reserve of mental and physical energy that may be called upon during the ensuing year. Keep in mind that change and moderation are the two essentials of a profitable vacation."

All of which is interesting and will save a lot of Midland county people a lot of trouble and prevent ill health, if they will only follow these "horse sense" suggestions.—Midland Republican.

A DESERVED REBUKE

Senator George Cutler of Luther received a much-deserved trouncing at the hands of the legislature when he tried to force through a pet bill of his designed to abolish the present non-partisan conservation commission. The measure, itself, is extremely undesirable; so too were the methods used by the Luther sion to get it out of committee. Now that the measure has been sent back, may it rest there permanently never again to threaten putting the administration of Michigan's great natural resources into the hands of partisan politics.—Hastings Banner.

WHAT DEMOCRATS THINK

A local prominent and life-long democrat stated this week that the democrats are doing their best to assure a republican come-back at the next election.—Frank Bryce, Grand Ledge Independent.

A NEW MARKET

There has been some criticism of the administration's plan of loaning millions of dollars through the Reconstruction Finance corporation to China in order to permit that nation to buy American wheat and cotton. We do not believe such criticism justifiable. The proposition is economically sound and has the added value of opening a door in the Far East that should eventually prove of inestimable value to America.

Nor should a loan made to China be placed in the same category with loans made to certain European countries—a Chinaman always pays his debts. To finance China with a loan that will take 900,000 bales of cotton and 12,500,000 bushels of wheat from the huge surplus in this country at a time when the allotment adjustment act is about to be put in force is an example of short-sleeved diplomacy that should meet with approval in the United States. As has often been pointed out, the big problem for agriculture is to secure a dependable outlet for surplus products and the deal with China is a move in the right direction.

ASK FARMERS TO

in the difference between the price paid for wheat to the farmer and the price paid by the consumer for bread."

Wheat marketing statistics show that approximately $150,000,000 will be raised by the processing tax to be distributed to farmers who agree to reduce their 1934 wheat acreage. The estimated cost of the crop reduction plan is less than two cents per bushel and will be deducted from the processing tax.

If all Michigan farmers accept the government plan of lowering the number of acres sown to wheat, crop plans on 63,968 farms in this State will be affected, and the operator on these farms will derive a greater income from his wheat crop while planting fewer acres.

Definite allotments of the number of acres to be "taken" out of production in each county will be furnished to the county committees by federal officials. It will be the duty of the county committees to apportion the total reduction of acreage among the farmers in their counties. These allotments will be published in newspapers within the county so that they will be subject to public inspection.

"This new piece of social machinery we call the Agricultural Adjustment Administration is ready to go," Secretary Wallace says. "It remains to be seen whether the spirit to keep it going and on the right road exists."

FREDERIC AND DEWARD

(By Lela Parkinson)

It seemed rather pleasant to see the smiling faces of the Frederic boys who have been at Camp Custer. They came to spend the week end at home, after which they will be stationed at the Hartwick Pines.

The berries give promise to a very good crop this year, only they are sorely in need of rain.

Frederic is rather quiet right now, so many of the young people are away on vacations.

Tony Richards and Louie Shorts returned Saturday after visiting friends in Saginaw last week.

Chester Barden of Saginaw is spending a few days with Thomas and Jim Parkinson.

Wilma Corsaut has returned home after attending school at Grayling.

Friends are very sorry to learn that Mrs. McCracken is ill in bed. We wish her cheer and speedy recovery.

Guess there are two things wrong with Deward news; the weather is either too suffocating for your scribe to get out after news or the fishing is so good at Deward that even our clerk doesn't get out for anybody to catch a glimpse of him.

DEMOCRATIC revolt against some of President Roosevelt's measures created discord in both the house and the senate and the administration's program for national recovery was not having a smooth road. The first upset had been the senate's action in voting a 25 per cent limitation on reductions in compensation payments to war veterans, which added about $170,000,000 to the independent office appropriation bill before it was sent to conference. Mr. Roosevelt, accepting his first defeat, sought peace by compromise. At his direction new regulations were prepared governing the payments to disabled war veterans and to the dependents of deceased soldiers, under which the veterans would receive an additional $50,000,000 or $80,000,000 over that which was contemplated in the President's original orders.

The reduction in payments under the new orders would be about $400,000,000 instead of the $450,000,000 originally contemplated. The veterans' bloc in congress was not at all enthusiastic over this compromise.

Among the boys who are really trying and looking toward the future with hopes of making good marks for themselves, Herman Content tops the list. He recently spent a week in Detroit taking examinations for a position in the Coast Guards. He has previously taken examinations for entrance to West Point, being one of two representatives from Michigan chosen for that honor. More power to you, Content.

New additions of thirteen men, all of whom live around Crawford County arrived in camp last Friday morning. We wish to welcome them into our group and hope they will enjoy themselves and be as contented with the camp as we who have been here longer. The thirteen men are Elgin Benware, Willard Harwood, George Woods, David White, Chas. Hanover, Peter Felling, Everett Corwin, Devere Benware, Percy Colwell, Walter Soderholm, Mike Wargo, Ernest Hall, and Harold Lassen.

There are approximately twenty-one First Sergeants in Company 6721. Does that astound you? It ought to. But if you are inclined to disbelieve me just ask any of the numerous "big shots" what their job in camp consists of.

Curtis Card (Dear Ole Uncle Curtis) sat in the library racking his brain for something to write to his girl. Section Leader Joe Shirley finally assisted him with this suggestion:

"Tell her you're a big-shot. A corporal, first sergeant, lieutenant; or tell her you run the whole place! That's the way to make her love ya."

"That's what I'll do. I'll tell her I run the whole place," Curt replied enthusiastically.

"Say listen, Curt," a voice from across the table belonging to 'Sir Oliver' Cromwell said emphatically, "Your girl and mine hadn't better get together. I told mine the same thing."

And that's only a typical episode of a lot of other "big shots" who have their lady friends (believing?) they run the place. But then, perhaps that's the way to "get 'em and keep 'em."—Do ya 'spose?

Not throwing any bouquets, but have you noticed that Glen Condon, our chauffeur, and Joe Rudzinski, our barber, are about the only fellows in camp who have landed "steadies"? Try as we will, the rest of us can hardly get a tumble. Won't you tell us the secret of your success, boys?

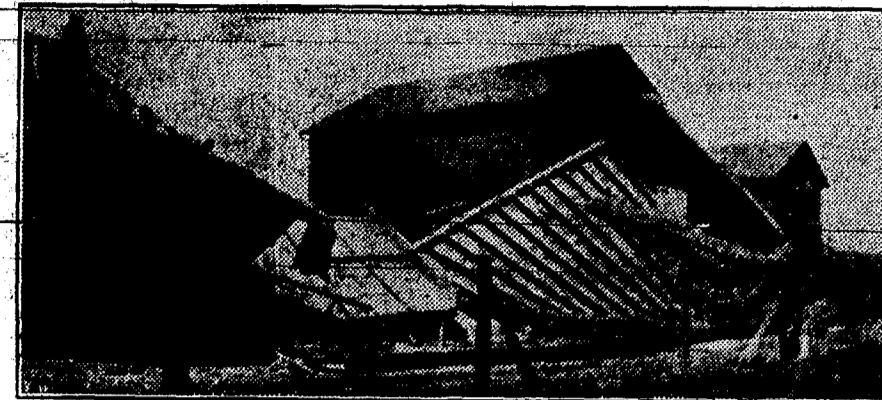

Hot Chat Do we feel big! We are in the movies now. Yes sir, the cameraman came right out to camp and took pictures of the Company as it functions in everyday life. Don't be surprised if you see us at your favorite theatre and exclaim, "There's John. There's Pete. There's Hank, etc."

Let's hope they cut the scene where the fellows are washing clothes. We are afraid a lot of girls would start rushing us if they knew we were good laundrymen.

Control yourselves girls. That handsome young man you see playing regularly with the Grayling baseball team is not Clark Gable, but a fine young chap from our camp named Irving Shelp. Keep your eye on him. He'll do big things.

Other capable fellows from our camp who are now playing with the Grayling team are Max Parks and Walter Grubleski. These boys sure know their baseball and can be counted on to hold up their end of the game.

Whenever you get sick out here at Camp 6721, all you do is go see "Doc" Berg and his assistant, "Miss" Langoni. "Doc" will tell you to stick out your tongue and say "ah." Then he will instruct "Miss" Langoni to give you some—O-o-u what is that stuff? Name it and you can have it. But they really are getting to be capable hospital aides. You ought to see those boys doctor up burns, cuts, bruises, athletes foot, and ingrown toenails.

When You Buy Craig's Bread You KNOW What You are Getting

A town without a bakery is like a camp without a cook.

We ask you, if healthy bread of highest quality at a competitive price means anything to you, INSIST on—

Craig's Breads and Pastries

Sold at all first-class grocery stores in Grayling

Strong odor is to bread what rot is to apples; both are from over-fermentation.

One small yeast cake contains millions of minute plants. When mixed in bread dough and kept under warm temperature, these plants grow, causing the loaf to expand.

The difficult part of the process is in knowing when these small plants have reached their full growth. Only years of experience in baking can give this knowledge to a baker.

Craig's bakery gives Grayling the benefit of years of experience in making GOOD bread and all kinds of pastry. Everything is made with the finest material money can buy. Pastry is made, and kept at all times, under cleanest conditions.

We invite everyone to visit our bakery and see, with your own eyes, our process of making bread. You will agree that it is "an art by itself."

We make "live" bread; outside bakeries make—WHAT?

People of Grayling:

My bakery business has been located in Grayling since 1928. During this time we have passed through one of the most trying periods in our history—willing hands unable to work—hungry families deprived of the food and clothing needed to sustain and protect healthy bodies. Our welfare system was strained under this load, yet the business men of the community helped in every way possible to relieve the strain.

I wish to bring to the attention of Grayling people that I willingly assumed my share of the burden as did other business men of Grayling in helping our community to weather our recent crisis. I feel that we are out of the abyss of the depression and again on the road to prosperity.

Now, as you know, my business is baking, but I cannot continue baking bread and other pastries as a business unless I have a demand for my goods. I have the fullest confidence in the people of Grayling, and I'm sure when they are shown in an honest, straight-forward manner that their help is needed they will cooperate with their local Bakery, and so help our little city on to a firmer prosperity.

Sincerely yours,

A. R. CRAIG

P.S. "CRAIG'S BREAD & BAKED GOODS" may be purchased at nearly all local food and grocery stores. Ask for Grayling bread; and insist on getting it.
